DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 23-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. As per independent claims 23 and 32 (and any applicable dependent claims from these independent claims), the phrases containing “parameter information tuples N”, “N tuples”, “parameter tuples”, are nowhere to be found in the written description of the specification, and therefore is not reasonably conveyed to one skilled in the art at the time the application was filed had possession of the claimed invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 2655

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-5,7,10,13-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yang et al (5970459) in view of Campbell et al (6366883).

As per claims 1,18-22, Yang et al (5970459) teaches inserting said signal a plurality of phonemes by phoneme symbols (as phoneme symbols col. 1 lines 35-40); inserting in said signal a desired duration of each of said phoneme symbols (col. 4 line 60-66); a third step including at least one of said phonemes at a time offset from the beginning of the duration of said phoneme that is greater than zero less than the duration of said phoneme (as offset adjustments of the time duration of the phonemes – col. 5 lines 1-12). Furthermore, Yang et al (5970459) teaches at least two prosody parameter specification towards a target value (col. 4 lines 60-67). Lee et al does not explicitly teach any selected point in time for reaching said target value, however, Campbell et al (6366883) teaches a selected point in time for reaching the target value (col. 16 line 14 – col. 17 line 23). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art of speech processing to modify the teachings of Lee et al with “any selected point in time” for reaching the target value because it would advantageously approximate costs between target and candidate phonemes (Campbell et al (6366883), col. 2 lines 40-49).

As per claims 2, 15, Yang et al (5970459) teaches pitch parameters (col. 4 line 65)

As per claims 3, 16, Yang et al (5970459) teaches energy parameters (col. 4 line 65)

Art Unit: 2655

As per claims 4, 17, Yang et al (5970459) teaches target values for both pitch and energy (col. 4 lines 63-67)

As per claim 5, Yang et al (5970459) teaches either one of said at least two prosody specs specifies an energy (col. 4 lines 53-67)

As per claim 7, Yang et al (5970459) teaches target specs in terms of offsets from the boundaries (col. 2, lines 55-65), wherein the boundary start is determined on the phoneme level (col. 4 lines 53-67)

As per claim 10, Yang et al (5970459) teaches text (col. 3 lines 30-35)

As per claim 13, Yang et al (5970459) teaches image (col. 3 lines 30-35)

As per claim 14, Yang et al (5970459) teaches offset (col. 5 lines 14-20)

Art Unit: 2655

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Please see related art listed on the PTO-892 form.
